

Here is a rough draft of what an agreement could look like...

If John Wins Primary, Lowell joins the team as follows:

3yr no-cut contract 150K, full benefits, driver...

Complete authority over Milwaukee, Racine, Kenosha, and Madison (Green Bay can be negotiated)

That authority includes ability to:

- Create rules for those districts
- Change boards when I deem it necessary
- Break apart district (s)
- Appoint my own deputy superintendents
 - o My budget would be proportional to the number of kids in those four districts
- You identify me as the superintendent in charge of those four urban districts with the authority and autonomy that goes with the office of WI State Superintendent

We are going to shake up Milwaukee and it is going to make noise. You need to be able to stay true to the commitment.
