Keith Sellen, Director
Wisconsin Office of Lawyer Regulation
P.O. Box 1648
Madison, WI 53701

Dear Mr. Sellen:

The 65 Project is a bipartisan, nonprofit effort to protect democracy from abuse of the legal system by holding accountable lawyers who engage in fraudulent and malicious efforts to overturn legitimate elections.

We write to request that the Office of Lawyer Regulation investigate the actions taken by Daniel J. Eastman (State Bar No.1011433) relating to his effort to overturn the 2020 presidential election. Mr. Eastman served as part of a coordinated attempt to “release the Kraken” on American democracy, alongside Sidney Powell, Rudy Giuliani, Lin Wood, and John Eastman as they abused the judicial system to promote and amplify bogus, unsupported claims of fraud to discredit an election that Mr. Trump lost.

Mr. Eastman worked on Feehan v. Wisconsin Elections Commission from the litigation’s inception. That action not only lacked any basis in law or fact, but included the Plaintiffs’ counsel manufacturing quotes from caselaw, adding a plaintiff who had not agreed to join the lawsuit, and presenting patently false evidence that the lawyers did not investigate before presenting it to federal court. Indeed, Feehan was nearly a carbon copy of litigation filed in several other states, as national lawyers sought to create a false narrative about voter fraud that was based on conjecture and conspiracy theories. Incredibly, and perhaps conclusively for your investigation, Mr. Eastman’s own co-counsel has defended herself against a defamation claim based on the assertions she made regarding the 2020 election by stating that, “no reasonable person” would believe those assertions to be “statements of fact.”<sup>1</sup>

Mr. Eastman lent his Wisconsin law license to the effort. Wisconsin’s Rules of Professional Conduct demand more. By filing a frivolous lawsuit untethered to either law or fact and in seeking an extreme remedy unheard of in any court of law, Mr. Eastman not only crossed, but blew past, the ethical standards to which he is bound.

A full investigation by the Office of Lawyer Regulation will demonstrate the egregious nature of Mr. Eastman's actions, especially when considered in light of his purposes, the direct and possible consequences of his behavior, and the serious risk that Mr. Eastman will repeat such conduct unless disciplined.

BACKGROUND

Joe Biden received over 81 million votes in November 2020, defeating Mr. Trump by over seven million votes and over four percentage points.<sup>2</sup> Mr. Trump's head of the U.S. Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency, Christopher Krebs, announced that the "November 3rd election was the most secure in American history. . . . There is no evidence that any voting system deleted or lost votes or changed votes or was in any way compromised." Mr. Trump fired him. William Barr, Mr. Trump's own Attorney General, declared that the Department of Justice has "not seen fraud on a scale that could have effected a different outcome in the election." Attorney General Barr announced his resignation less than two weeks later, but not before again confirming that the 2020 elections had been free and fair.<sup>3</sup>

Many of Mr. Trump's own senior advisors agreed with Attorney General Barr and Mr. Krebs.<sup>4</sup> Indeed, Deputy (and later Acting) Attorney General Jeffrey Rosen and Associate (and later Acting) Deputy Attorney General Richard Donoghue regularly refuted the false information and allegations that Mr. Trump and his allies asserted about a fraudulent election.<sup>5</sup> Mr. Rosen has testified that on December 15, 2020, at a meeting that included Mark Meadows, White House Chief of Staff, he and others told Mr. Trump that the information he was receiving from his political allies was not correct.<sup>6</sup> And Mr. Donoghue has testified to the Select Committee to Investigate the January 6th Attack on the United States Capitol (Select Committee) that on December 27, 2020, he told Mr. Trump "in very clear terms" that after "dozens of investigations, hundreds of interviews" looking at "Georgia, Pennsylvania, Michigan, and Nevada," the Department of Justice – Mr. Trump’s own Department of Justice – had concluded that “the major allegations are not supported by the evidence developed.”<sup>7</sup>

Despite clear proof that no fraud occurred, and that no one stole the election from him, Mr. Trump and his lawyers sought to overturn the legitimate results by filing 65 baseless lawsuits across the country.<sup>8</sup> None succeeded and, in fact, courts have imposed sanctions on the lawyers who participated in these suits and referred them for sanctions to their respective state bars.<sup>9</sup>

CONDUCT GIVING RISE TO THE COMPLAINT

Mr. Eastman helped lead the charge on behalf of Mr. Trump in Wisconsin.

On December 1, 2020 – four weeks after the presidential election – Mr. Eastman filed a Complaint for Declaratory and Injunctive Relief, which initiated Feehan v. Wisconsin Election Commission. In that lawsuit, Mr. Eastman sought to have the federal court “order state officials to decertify the election results that state officials had certified the day before, order the Governor not to transmit to the Electoral College the certified results he’d transmitted the day before and order the Governor to instead transmit election results that declared Donald Trump to be ‘the winner of this election.’”

As noted above, Feehan was a carbon copy of complaints filed in other states – an effort that Mr. Eastman’s co-counsel Sidney Powell called “releasing the Kraken”:

- King, et al. v. Whitmer, et al., Case No. 20-cv-13134 (E.D. Mich. 2020)
- Bowyer, et al. v. Ducey, et al., Case No. 2:20-cv-02321-DJH (D. Ariz. 2020)
- Pearson, et al. v. Kemp, et al., Case No. 1:20-v-04809-TCB (N.D. Ga. 2020)

As just a sampling, the Complaint (and Amended Complaint) Mr. Eastman filed asserted:

This civil action brings to light a massive election fraud, multiple violations of Wisconsin Statutes Chapters 5 – 12 (hereafter, “Wisconsin Election Code”), see, e.g., Wis. Stat. §§ 5.03, et. seq., in addition to the Election and Electors Clauses and Equal Protection Clause of the U.S. Constitution. These violations occurred during the 2020 General Election in the City of Milwaukee, southeastern Wisconsin counties, and throughout the State of Wisconsin, as set forth in the affidavits of dozens of eyewitnesses and the statistical anomalies and mathematical impossibilities detailed in the affidavits of expert witnesses. See Exh. 19, Declaration of affiant presenting statistical analysis prediction of 105,639 fraudulent ballots cast for Joe Biden in the City of Milwaukee and Exh. 17, Declaration of Russell James Ramsland, Jr. wherein he demonstrates it is statistically impossible for Joe Biden to have won Wisconsin.

The scheme and artifice to defraud was for the purpose of illegally and fraudulently manipulating the vote count to manufacture an election of Joe Biden as President of the United States, and also of various down ballot democrat candidates in the 2020 election cycle. The fraud was executed by many means, but the most fundamentally troubling, insidious, and egregious ploy was the systemic adaptation of old-fashioned “ballot-stuffing” techniques. See Exh. 16, U. S. Senator Elizabeth Warren (D. Mass.) letter of December 6, 2019 concerning the dangers of private equity control and censorship of election technology in the United States. The fraud has now been amplified and rendered virtually invisible by computer software created and run by domestic and foreign actors for that very purpose.

The multifaceted schemes and artifices implemented by Defendants and their collaborators to defraud resulted in the unlawful counting, or fabrication, of hundreds of thousands of illegal, ineligible, duplicate or purely fictitious ballots in the State of Wisconsin, that collectively add up to multiples of Biden’s purported lead in the State of 20,565 votes.

While this Amended Complaint, and the eyewitness and expert testimony incorporated herein, identify with specificity sufficient ballots required to set aside the 2020 General Election results, the entire process is so riddled with fraud, illegality, and statistical impossibility that this Court, and Wisconsin’s voters, courts, and legislators, cannot rely on, or certify, any numbers resulting from this election. Accordingly, this Court must set aside the results of the 2020 General Election and grant the declaratory and injunctive relief requested herein.

The fraud begins with the election software and hardware from Dominion Voting Systems Corporation (“Dominion”) used by the Wisconsin Elections Commission. The Dominion systems derive from the software designed by Smartmatic Corporation, which became Sequoia in the United States.

Smartmatic and Dominion were founded by foreign oligarchs and dictators to ensure computerized ballot-stuffing and vote manipulation to whatever level was needed to make certain Venezuelan dictator Hugo Chavez never lost another election. See Exh. 1, Redacted Declaration of Dominion Venezuela Whistleblower (“Dominion Whistleblower Report”) and Exh. 8, Statement by Ana Mercedes Diaz Cardozo outlining actual examples of election manipulation by hacking and misuse of technology in Venezuelan elections. Notably, Chavez “won” every election thereafter.

As set forth in the Dominion Whistleblower Report, the Smartmatic software was contrived through a criminal conspiracy to manipulate Venezuelan elections in favor of dictator Hugo Chavez.

In addition to the Dominion computer fraud, this Amended Complaint identifies several additional categories of “traditional” voting fraud that occurred as a direct result of Defendant Wisconsin Election Commission (“WEC”) and other Defendants directing Wisconsin clerks and other election officials to ignore or violate the express requirements of the Wisconsin Election Code. First, the WEC issued “guidance” to county and municipal clerks not to reject “indefinitely confined” absentee voters, even if the clerks possess “reliable information” that the voter is no longer indefinitely confined, in direct contravention of Wisconsin Statute § 6.86(2)(6), which states that clerks must remove such voters. Second, the WEC issued further guidance directing clerks – in violation of Wisconsin Statute § 6.87(6)(d), which states that an absentee envelope certification “is missing the address of a witness, the ballot may not be counted” – to instead fill in the missing address information.

In the accompanying redacted declaration of a former electronic intelligence analyst with 305th Military Intelligence with experience gathering SAM missile system electronic intelligence, the Dominion software was accessed by agents acting on behalf of China and Iran in order to monitor and manipulate elections, including the most recent US general election in 2020. See Exh. 12 (copy of redacted witness affidavit).<sup>10</sup>

Throughout the Amended Complaint in these actions, “fraud” or its variations appear 45 times, “Venezuela” or “Venezuelan” appear 16 times, and there are at least nine references to Hugo Chavez.<sup>11</sup> Indeed, Mr. Eastman and his co-counsel appeared to purposefully seek to link Smartmatic and Dominion, even though they are actually rival companies (for example, both bid for contracts in Georgia).<sup>12</sup> Moreover, the Amended Complaint falsely states that Dominion was “founded by foreign oligarchs and dictators to ensure computerized ballot-stuffing and vote manipulation to whatever level was needed to make certain Venezuelan dictator Hugo Chavez never lost another election.”<sup>13</sup> In actuality, John Poulos founded the company in Toronto, Canada in 2002 – a publicly available fact – and in 2009, Dominion Voting Systems, Inc. incorporated in Delaware and headquartered in Denver, Colorado.<sup>14</sup>

The efforts contained other concerning features, as well. For example:

- The Plaintiffs allege that the Dominion software misallocates, redistributes, or deletes votes, but prior to including those allegations in the complaints, Mr. Eastman knew that Georgia had completed two hand recounts that confirmed the accuracy of Dominion’s tabulation.<sup>15</sup> He also knew that the Chairman of the Maricopa County Board of Supervisors in Arizona had released a statement explaining, “The Dominion tabulation equipment met mandatory requirements during logic and accuracy testing before the Presidential Preference Election, the Primary Election and the General Election. And after each of these 2020 elections, the hand count audit showed the machines generated an accurate count.”<sup>16</sup>

- Wisconsin conducted a post-election audit that included fifteen percent of Dominion machines and Wisconsin Election Commissioner Eastman Knudson, a former Republican state legislator, stated that the audit showed “no evidence of systemic problems” or “hacking” or of “switched votes.”<sup>17</sup> The audit results were posted online and available prior to the Amended Complaint’s filing.
- On December 1, 2020, Attorney General Barr reiterated that no fraud occurred, specifically rebutting the claims regarding Dominion by saying, “There’s been one assertion that would be systemic fraud and that would be the claim that machines were programmed essentially to skew the election results. And the DHS and DOJ have looked into that, and so far, we haven’t seen anything to substantiate that.”<sup>18</sup>
- The lawyers included a declaration of an anonymous source – a “code-named “Spyder” – who the Plaintiffs stated was a “military intelligence expert.”<sup>19</sup> In fact, “Spyder” (which a mistaken filing by Ms. Powell revealed to be Josh Merritt) never actually worked in military intelligence and he himself acknowledged that the declaration that Plaintiffs’ counsel wrote for him was “misleading.”<sup>20</sup>
- The complaints also selectively quoted Princeton professor Andrew Appel and indicated he was speaking about Dominion in 2020, when, in fact Dr. Appel was speaking about a decades-old machine.<sup>21</sup> In reality, Dr. Appel had 58 other

- Plaintiffs’ attorneys cited, and attached to their complaints, a declaration from Terpsichore Maras-Lindeman without ever speaking to Ms. Maras-Lindeman. Instead, Ms. Maras-Lindeman “distributed her affidavit widely to like-minded people and was unaware it had come to Powell’s attention until it appeared as an exhibit in one of her cases.”<sup>24</sup> Had Plaintiffs’ counsel actually spoken to Ms. Maras-Lindeman, or conducted even the most rudimentary investigation, they would have learned that Ms. Maras-Lindeman has an extensive history of making false claims about her career, education, and training. The North Dakota Attorney General’s Office investigated her for violating consumer fraud and charitable solicitation laws and noted that “it has been very difficult to determine the truth among Maras-Lindeman’s various claims.”<sup>25</sup> A North Dakota court entered a judgment against Ms. Maras-Lindeman finding that she engaged in fraud and deceptive behavior.<sup>26</sup> All of this information was publicly available before Ms. Newman and her co-counsel relied on her affidavit that happened to find its way into their hands.
- Another affiant relied on by Plaintiffs’ counsel was Russell Ramsland, a conspiracy theorist who has asserted that George Soros (born in 1930) helped form the “Deep State” in Nazi Germany in the 1930s, working alongside Senator Prescott Bush (President George H.W. Bush’s father), the Muslim Brotherhood, and “leftists.”<sup>27</sup> Mr. Ramsland made these publicly reported statements, as far back as 2018. Mr. Ramsland’s analysis of voter turnout was riddled with obvious and quickly documented errors and Ms. Newman never informed the Court of those errors.<sup>28</sup>

Additionally, sufficient public information about her co-counsel's work existed to have put Mr. Eastman on notice that he needed to ensure that the claims he would be advancing in court had a factual basis. In a November 28, 2020 article, the Washington Post reported that:

Campaign lawyers Justin Clark and Matt Morgan told others they should not present the Dominion theory because there was no evidence for it, the two officials said. The campaign official who was surprised by her sudden involvement said she did not seem interested in having the evidence.

“What you saw with Sidney Powell and Rudy, it wasn't shoot first and ask questions later. It was shoot first and don't ask questions at all,” that official said.<sup>33</sup>

Other, even presumably friendlier sources called Ms. Powell's claims into question. Fox News's Tucker Carlson stated on the air on November 19, 2020, that he invited Ms. Powell to appear on his show and present her evidence, but, he noted, “She never sent [] any evidence, despite a lot of requests...not a page...[Powell] never demonstrated that a single actual vote moved illegitimately by software from one candidate to another. Not one.”<sup>34</sup>

Mr. Eastman either failed to conduct the requisite reasonable inquiry to ascertain whether the claims he was bringing had a factual basis or he knew that he was falsely asserting facts to the court. After all, as Ms. Powell has since argued, “no reasonable person” would believe those assertions to be “statements of fact.”<sup>35</sup>

Either way, all of the United States District Courts soundly rejected the effort.

In Wisconsin:

[T]he legal question at the heart of this case is simple. Federal courts have limited jurisdiction. Does the federal court have the jurisdiction and authority to grant the relief this lawsuit seeks? The answer is no.

Federal judges do not appoint the president in this country. One wonders why the plaintiffs came to federal court and asked a federal judge to do so. After a week of sometimes odd and often harried litigation, the court is no closer to answering the “why.” But this federal court has no authority or jurisdiction to grant the relief the remaining plaintiff seeks. The court will dismiss the case.<sup>36</sup>

The Court also noted that the Plaintiffs in “presented no case, statute or constitutional provision providing the court with” the authority Plaintiff sought the Court to exercise.<sup>37</sup> Further, “Plaintiffs’ alleged injury does not entitle them to seek their requested remedy because the harm of having one’s vote invalidated or diluted is not remedied by denying millions of others their right to vote.”<sup>38</sup>

Because the Amended Complaint was nearly identical to others filed in Arizona, Georgia, and Michigan, it’s also instructive to know how those courts dealt with the claims and allegations.

In Arizona, federal judge Diane Humetewa, who was on Mr. Trump’s shortlist for United States Supreme Court vacancies, held:

By any measure, the relief Plaintiffs seek is extraordinary. If granted, millions of Arizonans who exercised their individual right to vote in the 2020 General Election would be utterly disenfranchised. Such a request should then be accompanied by clear and conclusive facts to support the alleged “egregious range of conduct in Maricopa County and other Arizona counties . . . at the direction of Arizona state election officials.” Yet the Complaint’s allegations are sorely wanting of relevant or reliable evidence, and Plaintiffs’ invocation of this Court’s limited jurisdiction is severely strained...

The allegations they put forth to support their claims of fraud fail in their particularity and plausibility. Plaintiffs append over three hundred pages of attachments, which are only impressive for their volume. The various affidavits and expert reports are largely based on anonymous witnesses, hearsay, and irrelevant analysis of unrelated elections...

Allegations that find favor in the public sphere of gossip and innuendo cannot be a substitute for earnest pleadings and procedure in federal court. They most certainly cannot be the basis for upending Arizona’s 2020 General Election.<sup>39</sup>

In Georgia, the Court stated:

[T]he burden is on the Plaintiffs, and the relief that they seek is extraordinary. And although they make allegations of tremendous worldwide improprieties regarding the Dominion voting machines, those allegations are supported by precious little proof.<sup>40</sup>

The Court added in its order dismissing the case:

[T]he Plaintiffs essentially ask the Court for perhaps the most extraordinary relief ever sought in any Federal Court in connection with an election. They want this Court to substitute its judgment for that of two-and-a-half million Georgia voters who voted for Joe Biden, and this I am unwilling to do.<sup>41</sup>

And in Michigan, the Court held:

Plaintiffs . . . [bring] forth claims of widespread voter irregularities and fraud in the processing and tabulation of votes and absentee ballots. They seek relief that is stunning in its scope and breathtaking in its reach. If granted, the relief would disenfranchise the vote of more than 5.5 million Michigan citizens who, with dignity, hope, and a promise a voice, participated in the 2020 General Election. The Court declines to grant Plaintiffs this relief.<sup>42</sup>

But the federal court in Michigan went further when presented with a motion for sanctions against the attorneys who brought that matter forward:

This lawsuit represents a historic and profound abuse of the judicial process. It is one thing to take on the charge of vindicating rights associated with an allegedly fraudulent election. It is another to take on the charge of deceiving a federal court and the American people into believing that rights were infringed, without regard to whether any laws or rights were in fact violated. This is what happened here.

Individuals may have a right (within certain bounds) to disseminate allegations of fraud unsupported by law or fact in the public sphere. But attorneys cannot exploit their privilege and access to the judicial process to do the same. And when an attorney has done so, sanctions are in order.

Here's why. America's civil litigation system affords individuals the privilege to file a lawsuit to allege a violation of law. Individuals, however, must litigate within the established parameters for filing a claim. Such parameters are set forth in statutes, rules of civil procedure, local court rules, and professional rules of responsibility and ethics. Every attorney who files a claim on behalf of a client is charged with the obligation to know these statutes and rules, as well as the law allegedly violated.

Specifically, attorneys have an obligation to the judiciary, their profession, and the public (i) to conduct some degree of due diligence before presenting allegations as truth; (ii) to advance only tenable claims; and (iii) to proceed with a lawsuit in good faith and based on a proper purpose. Attorneys also have an obligation to dismiss a lawsuit when it becomes clear that the requested relief is unavailable.

The attorneys who filed the instant lawsuit abused the well-established rules applicable to the litigation process by proffering claims not backed by law; proffering claims not backed by evidence (but instead, speculation, conjecture, and unwarranted suspicion); proffering factual allegations and claims without engaging in the required prefiling inquiry; and dragging out these proceedings even after they acknowledged that it was too late to attain the relief sought.

And this case was never about fraud—it was about undermining the People’s faith in our democracy and debasing the judicial process to do so.<sup>43</sup>

The Court granted the motion for attorney’s fees and sanctions and directed that a copy of that order be sent to the appropriate disciplinary authority where each attorney involved in the matter is admitted. The Plaintiffs’ counsel appealed the order to the Sixth Circuit, which denied the appeal.<sup>44</sup>

Mr. Eastman advanced the same claims, the same allegations, and the same assertions as those put forward in King v. Whitmer. He did so without any more evidence; he did so despite public information that would have called into question the reasonableness of the efforts; and he did so without regard to their consequence.

His actions warrant discipline.

A SUBSTANTIAL BASIS EXISTS FOR THE OFFICE OF LAWYER REGULATION TO INVESTIGATE MR. EASTMAN’S CONDUCT AND TO IMPOSE APPROPRIATE DISCIPLINE

The Office of Lawyer Regulation should investigate Mr. Eastman’s actions on the following basis:

1. Mr. Eastman Violated Rule 3.1 By Bringing and Defending a Matter He Knew Lacked Merit

Rule 3.1 provides, in part, as follows: “In representing a client, a lawyer shall not...knowingly advance a claim or defense that is unwarranted under existing law, except that the lawyer may advance such claim or defense if it can be supported by good faith argument for an extension, modification or reversal of existing law.”

Comment 2 states that: “The action is frivolous...if the lawyer is unable either to make a good faith argument on the merits of the action taken or to support the action taken by a good faith argument for an extension, modification or reversal of existing law.”

“Knowledge” under the Rules of Professional Conduct can be “inferred from circumstances.”<sup>45</sup>

Ample evidence demonstrates that Mr. Eastman knew of the frivolous nature of the litigation he initiated. As the District Court in Feehan found, the Plaintiffs “presented no case, statute or constitutional provision providing the court with” the authority they sought for the Court to exercise.

Four separate federal courts reviewed the allegations – nearly identical across the board – and rejected the efforts. And the defendants in the Michigan matter successfully requested sanctions against the attorneys advancing the same claims as Mr. Eastman.

Further, the surrounding context demonstrates the frivolousness of Mr. Eastman’s conduct. Public reports available prior to Mr. Eastman’s initiating Feehan showed that the Trump campaign’s attorneys did not believe Ms. Powell had any evidence to support her claims. Mr. Eastman did not speak to, or apparently ascertain whether anyone of the legal team had spoken to, the witnesses whose declarations he submitted to the Court. He filed a complaint on behalf of a plaintiff who did not even know of, or give approval to, the filing.

In short, for the many reasons provided above, Mr. Eastman’s conduct violated Rule 3.1.

2. Mr. Eastman Violated Rule 3.3 By Making False Statements to the Court and Failing to Correct Those Statements

Rule 3.3(a)(1) of the Rules of Professional Conduct provides that: “A lawyer shall not knowingly...make a false statement of fact or law to a tribunal or fail to correct a false statement of material fact or law previously made to the tribunal by the lawyer.”

The District Court’s opinion notes that Plaintiffs’ counsel made up an entire quote from a case that does not exist, neither in the cited case nor in any federal court decision. Mr. Eastman signed that filing.

Additionally, the Amended Complaint and accompanying affidavits that Mr. Eastman filed included false statements regarding the background of at least two witnesses. That information was available publicly prior to Mr. Eastman's filing the Amended Complaint, but he filed the affidavits nevertheless, referred to the mistaken background throughout the Amended Complaint and filings, and failed to correct the record even after the matter was published in a national newspaper.

Further, the Amended Complaint and briefing made purposefully false statements regarding Dominion's founding, sought to connect Smartmatic and Dominion even though the two companies are competitors, and used affiant allegations about Smartmatic against Dominion in a deliberate effort to mislead the Court regarding Dominion.

Mr. Eastman's conduct violated Rule 3.3.

3. Mr. Eastman Violated Rule 4.4 Command That Lawyers Respect the Rights of Third Parties

Pursuant to Rule 4.4(a), "In representing a client, a lawyer shall not use means that have no substantial purpose other than to embarrass, delay, or burden a third person."

Comment 1 to the Rule states, "Responsibility to a client requires a lawyer to subordinate the interests of others to those of the client, but that responsibility does not imply that a lawyer may disregard the rights of third persons."

In the interests of his clients, Mr. Eastman sought to have millions of voters lose their right to decide the 2020 presidential election. Every court addressing the same complaint filed by Mr. Eastman and his co-counsel noted the extraordinary remedy they sought and the effect it would have on millions of Americans.

Mr. Eastman disregarded the potential consequences of his proposed remedy – showing no respect for the rights of millions of third persons whose votes would be invalidated – and his actions warrant discipline.

4. Mr. Eastman Engaged in Misconduct that Violates Rule 8.4

Under Rule 8.4, "It is professional misconduct for a lawyer to...violate or attempt to violate the Rules of Professional Conduct, knowingly assist or induce another to do so, or do so through the acts of another; [or] engage in conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit or misrepresentation; [or] violate the attorney's oath."

The oath that Mr. Eastman took to gain admission to the State Bar of Wisconsin states, in part:

I will support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the state of Wisconsin...I will employ, for the purpose of maintaining the causes confided in me, such means only as are consistent with truth and honor, and will never seek to mislead the judge or jury by any artifice or false statement of fact or law...So help me God.

Mr. Eastman participated in a purposefully dishonest effort to undermine the 2020 election. He brought frivolous claims that the Constitution, prior court decisions, and relevant statutes barred. The bare “factual” bases he relied on were supported by false statements and wild speculation from discredited sources.

Furthermore, Mr. Eastman assisted others in violating the Rules of Professional Conduct. Ms. Powell actively participated in the Feehan litigation. The State Bar of Texas’s Committee for Lawyer Discipline filed a petition against Ms. Powell for her conduct related to the post-election cases she filed, including Feehan.<sup>46</sup> A Texas court recently denied Ms. Powell’s motion to dismiss the petition.

Without Mr. Eastman’s assistance as local counsel, Ms. Powell could not have proceeded in Wisconsin. He assisted her efforts to violate the rules.

He also ignored his oath, which required him to act consistent with honor and truth.

His actions must be scrutinized and disciplined.

The United States Supreme Court has long recognized in upholding disciplinary actions that “speech by an attorney is subject to greater regulation than speech by others.”<sup>47</sup> As officers of the court an attorney is “an intimate and trusted and essential part of the machinery of justice” and a “crucial source of information and opinion.”<sup>48</sup> Although attorneys, of course, maintain First Amendment rights, the actions in question here cross far beyond protected speech. Indeed, disciplinary boards and courts considering the conduct of other lawyers involved in the effort to overturn the 2020 election have rejected assertions that the attorneys enjoyed First Amendment protections for their conduct.

That members of our esteemed profession would engage in such actions – conduct that contributed to substantial harm to American democracy – should cause considerable distress within the entire legal community.

False statements intended to foment a loss of confidence in our elections and resulting loss of confidence in government generally damage the proper functioning of free society. When those false statements are made by an attorney, it also erodes the public’s confidence in the integrity of attorneys admitted to our bar and damages the profession's role as a crucial source of reliable information.<sup>49</sup>

Mr. Eastman chose to offer his professional license to an assault on our democracy. He pursued litigation that lacked any basis in law or fact. He participated in an organized effort to sow discord and doubt about the 2020 elections. He helped lead the charge in Wisconsin to disenfranchise millions of his fellow citizens because he did not like how they voted.

For the reasons set forth above, we respectfully request that the Office of Lawyer Regulation investigate Mr. Eastman's conduct and pursue appropriate discipline.

Sincerely,

Managing Director

On behalf of The 65 Project
